

Bragging Rights:

Glendora Kiwaniannes

For one Glendora family, Kiwanis membership has been an important part of its community life. Marian Harding Reich, a charter member of the Glendora Kiwaniannes Kiwanis Club, recently sponsored the membership of her two daughters, Marilee Goodwin and Carolu Every, into the Glendora Kiwaniannes. With this sponsorship, three generations of her family have become part of the Kiwanis family. First was her late father, William Harding, Sr., then Marian as a charter member of the Glendora Kiwaniannes, followed by the induction of her two daughters. Other Kiwanis family members have included Marian's late brother, William Harding, Jr., and his late wife Peggy Harding, who was a charter member of the Glendora Kiwaniannes.

Marian Reich, third from left, is congratulated by Glendora Kiwaniannes President Tina Novodoczky, second from left, following an earlier induction of Marian's two daughters, Marilee Godwin, left, and Carolu Every, right, into the Glendora Kiwaniannes. The occasion marked the continuing of her family's Kiwanis tradition of service in the community.

The Kiwanis Club of Glendora Kiwaniannes was among those receiving special awards and recognition at the Kiwanis Div. 35 Installation Dinner for incoming Kiwanis Lt. Gov. Rona Lunde for 2006-07. Kiwanis Div 35 includes 14 area clubs in the San Gabriel Valley. Two of the division's top awards were presented to the Glendora Kiwaniannes, Tina Novodoczky, president. The Club of the Year perpetual trophy was presented to them (third time for the club), and the Kiwanis Secretary of the Year perpetual trophy to Kay Robinson (third time for the club). Making the presentations to this past year's seven honored teams and clubs that comprise the division's 14 area Kiwanis clubs was Tom Marino, Kiwanis Div. 35 Lt. Gov for 2005-06

Tina Novodoczky, president of the Glendora Kiwaniannes Kiwanis Club, is shown accepting one of the two perpetual trophies the club received from Tom Marino, Kiwanis Immediate Past Lt. Gov., Div 35, during the division's Installation Dinner and Awards Presentations.
