The Lt. Governor's Corner

Celebrating Service with a Smile

Dear Fellow Kiwanians,

Charles Dickens said it best, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times."

The best of times was revealed at the 93rd Annual Kiwanis International Convention.

Over 3,500 delegates from around the world convened last month to vote, to learn, to share and to have fun at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida. It was an amazing assembly of people from around the world. One highlight was the election of the KI vice-president. Six candidates vied to become the Kiwanis International President in the year 2010-2011. The winner was Sylvester "Sly" Neal (Washington). We used pencils to mark our ballots, just to prevent a "chad" epidemic. Next year (2008-2009) our president will be Don Canaday (Indiana), and then (2009-2010) Paul Palazzolo (Illinois).

The best of times was also revealed in the 232nd anniversary of the signing of our Declaration of Independence. Whether it was hosting a Fourth of July Parade (Hacienda Heights) or selling fireworks (Duarte), I hope you and your family and club members had a great July 4th

The worst of times is probably addressed to all the people affected by bank foreclosures (Indy Mac), fires (Big Sur), and flooding (Midwest). I hope God's Grace will provide for all the individuals and their families who are affected by these tragedies.

FYI. Our Division 35 has its checking account with Indy Mac. Thanks to the studious work of Bert and Trudy Brandt, we will be moving our checking account Monday, July 14th without loss of time or money. GREAT JOB! Bert and Trudy.

And sadly in closing, our Division 35 is no longer Thirteen Clubs strong. The South El Monte Club has lost its charter. Hope to see you at our DCM on Thursday, July 17th.

Mike Tanaka
2007-2008 Div. 35 Lt. Governor

PLANNING AN INTERCLUB?

ALWAYS contact the President or other officer of the Club you're planning to visit. First, they may have a special event, or be going "dark" for a meeting, or need to have sufficient food/space available. Try to let them know at least 2 days in advance. Check our website, www.cnhdiv35.org for the latest club meeting information.

Kiwanis Club of La Puente Industry

La Puente Industry Kiwanis is having its 35th Annual Scholarship Steak Fry on July 20 at Steinmetz Center in Steinmetz Park in Hacienda Heights. It all began with Bill Steinmetz so many years ago and now we are back at his center with a great Western Dress evening. Good Western music and the famous Osborn steaks by the son of the master himself. Plenty of other items on the menu. And a huge slew of gifts will be available through a drawing to cover all tastes. Price for the evening is just $30.00. "Ya'll can hardly find such an exciting evening at that price. Bring the family and enjoy the great food and entertainment. The fun begins at 4:00 PM and quits when you do." Call Vern at 626-919-3368 or Paul 909-464-0061.

Walnut Valley News

Glendy, Richard, Pres. Trudy, Bert, Ed & LTG Mike

The morning after the last DCM, June 20, saw LTG Mike Tanaka inducting 2 new members into the Walnut Valley Kiwanis Club.

New members Glendy Chiang and Ed Koenke were sponsored, respectively, by Richard Malooly and Bert Brandt.

Walnut Valley does not remember the last time 2 members were inducted simultaneously.

On July 12, 2008, the Walnut Valley Club held a "Thank You" barbeque for their two Key Clubs at Diamond Bar High School and Walnut High School. About 70 young adults attended, along with one of the Diamond Bar Key Club advisors, with her husband and two kids. Luckily school was out, so only about 10% of the Key Club members were able to attend.

You're invited to our next event, July 23, cooking hot dogs & hamburgers at the Concert in the Park in Diamond Bar on a Wednesday evening,. Food starts at 6:00 p.m., the Country & Western Music starts at 6:30 at Sycamore Canyon Park, just east of Grand Ave. on Golden Springs Dr. If you want, after the concert they have a family movie, "Flushed Away".

And don't forget October 25 – Once again our Annual Pancake Breakfast in conjunction with the Rowland Heights Buckboard Days Parade and Festival.

93rd Annual Kiwanis International Convention Notes by Div 35 LTG Mike Tanaka

PART I

From June 26th to June 28th more than 5,000 Kiwanians and their families from around the world convened at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida.

(Continued from P. 4) The three days were filled with a menagerie of activities: Seminars and Workshops, Business Sessions One and Two, The Kiwanis International Store and Exhibitor Hall, The Bob Newhart Show, and an outing to the BB King Restaurant for Barbeque and Dancing. Boy! I sure am glad that the “Convention” was only three days! NOW, I really need a vacation.

I am proud to say four Division 35 Kiwanians and three spouses made the five hour flight to Orlando. They were:

Don Andrews, wife Bessie, LTG
Mike Tanaka, wife Linda, all from the South Hills Club

Les Peterson, wife Linda from the Monrovia Club

Morgan Matthews from the La Puente Industry
Club

PART II

KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL DELEGATES VOTE ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS AT THE KI CONVENTION June 26-29.

Two-year terms: OK

Kiwanis clubs, divisions, and districts now can elect officers to two-year terms, according to decisions made by the House of Delegates during the 95th Annual Kiwanis International Convention in Orlando, Florida, this past June 26-29. The House considered nine proposed amendments.

Here is a summary of decisions:

Approved:

- To allow clubs to elect officers for one- or two-year terms.
- To allow divisions to elect lieutenant governors for one- or two-year terms.
- To allow clubs to use electronic balloting for elections.
- To improve efficiency during elections for International offices.

Resolution: Celebrating and fostering ~~diversity~~ inclusiveness: PASSED.

Defeated:

- To allow a district to have one Trustee and, at the same time, one higher officer on the Kiwanis International Board.
- To allow clubs, districts, and other legal entities whose members are all Kiwanians to use the Kiwanis marks without paying a licensing fee or other charge.

(For complete wording of these amendments, visit www.kiwanis.org/convention/.)

New International Vice-President: Sylvester “Sly” Neal of the Pacific Northwest District.

Next year Kiwanis International Convention will be Nashville, TN.

Kiwanis partners with Boys & Girls Clubs

Kiwanis International’s new partnership with Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA) brings together two organizations with a strong emphasis on serving children.

The partnership allows the organizations to work together to create growth and increase youth-serving opportunities. The relationship promises many benefits, including: Kiwanis meeting space at BGCA facilities, BGCA speakers at Kiwanis meetings, and joint service projects.

“Boys & Girls Clubs of America is focused on leadership and character development for young people,” says Kiwanis International CEO Rob Parker. “Kiwanis is totally committed to serving the children of the world and to leadership and character development that leads to life-changing service. This partnership will be one of the most natural and dynamic partnerships we have ever developed.”
